About the congress

Croatian Lifestyle Medicine Association (CROLma) is organising its 3rd annual congress!

This international congress aims to connect professionals from Croatia and the world to share and educate on lifestyle medicine.

Our congresses are interdisciplinary, evidence-based, practical, and authentic, with lectures, panels and interactive workshops.

We invite you to spend three days with prominent lecturers and like-minded people to learn about lifestyle medicine and how to implement it in your daily practice.

Sponsored lecture

We invite pharmaceutical companies to sponsor and present at the 3rd International Lifestyle Medicine Congress: Craft, Science, and Art of Lifestyle Medicine, focusing on the synergy between their treatments and lifestyle interventions for chronic non-communicable diseases (NCDs). As the global burden of NCDs continues to rise, the integration of medication with lifestyle changes, such as diet, exercise, and stress management, is essential for improving patient outcomes. This is a unique opportunity to showcase how your innovations in medicine align with the principles of lifestyle medicine. Join us in driving a multidisciplinary approach to NCD management and shaping the future of healthcare.

SPONZORED LECTURE - 800,00 € + VAT

the duration of the sponsor lecture is 15 minutes

Application procedure for sponsoring a lecture:
